

Banner Theatre's 1st of May Band presents

W I L D G E E S E

A new show about exile, displacement, migration and the search for employment and security in a global economy

Featuring the stories of refugee cleaners in London's Canary Wharf, Chinese cockle-pickers in Morecambe Bay, Iranian asylum seekers and Irish, African/Caribbean and South Asian immigrant communities

Wild Geese is a video ballad interweaving interviews, documentary film and animation with live music and song. It features the musical styles of Africa, America, Asia and Europe – from reggae, rap and rock to folk, flamenco and klezmer – with strong messages about the human costs of globalisation.

"It is so important that people speak up about the racism and prejudice against refugees and asylum seekers; your production is a wonderful way of doing that." – Tony Brett Young, Mayor, London Borough of Sutton

See this exciting and hard-hitting new multimedia show at:

Library Theatre, Paradise Place, Birmingham

Thursday 16 June, 7:30 pm

Admission £5/£3 conc (nobody turned away through lack of funds)

For more information call 0121 451 1784

Featuring 'Transitions' – created and performed by young asylum seekers

Sponsored by Celebrating Sanctuary

All proceeds in aid of B-MAG's asylum seeker destitution fund

Funded by Arts Council England, Birmingham City Council, Birmingham Community Empowerment Network, Comic Relief, the European Social Fund & the Sir Barry Jackson Trust

More about Banner Theatre at www.bannertheatre.co.uk